It's Happening at the Guild

Don't miss our Annual General Meeting

When: Sunday, May 5th, 2013 at 2 P.M.

Where: Upstairs at The Olde Stone Cottage Pub, 3750 Kingston Road (just east of Scarborough Golf Club Rd.)
Parking is available in front or just west at the plaza or along Scarborough Golf Club Rd. or south at the church.

Speakers: Dorsey James, our new Patron; Sten Eirik, artistic director of the Guild Festival Theatre; City Councillor Paul Ainslie; John Mason, on the new “Friends of Guild Park and Gardens” group.

Renew your G.R.G. membership (or join). Be part of the decision-making process as the Guild site is revitalized.

Doors Open Toronto

Sunday, May 26th – 10 AM to 4 PM

The Guild will be featured on the 2013 Doors Open Toronto. On Sunday, May 26, The Guild Renaissance Group will lead a series of Walking Tours. A special surprise appearance is planned!

Heritage Toronto Walks

Saturday, July 6th, 1:30

We are pleased that the Guild site is once again on the schedule of Toronto's official Heritage Walking Tours. Puts the Guild on the Toronto Heritage map!

The Guild - Alive with Culture

July 27th – 28th, 2013

Don't miss The Guild – Alive with Culture – An Arts Festival in the Gardens of the Guild, Saturday, July 27th and Sunday, July 28th, 10 AM to 5 PM each day. This popular event is co-presented by Councillor Paul Ainslie and the Guild Renaissance Group.

The Olde Stone Cottage Pub is returning with wonderful food and the popular beer garden. The Guild Festival Theatre will perform at the Greek Theatre Saturday evening, so the Stone Cottage food, beer and wine will stay open later on Saturday evening! Dine prior to the theatre!

Walk the beautiful Gardens of the Guild, view the work of numerous artists, painters, potters, jewelers and fabric artists. Cedar Ridge Creative Centre and Gallery will demo art techniques. A wide variety of live entertainment will be showcased at The Greek Theatre. Meet with various community groups. Special features for younger visitors! Remember, both admission to the festival and parking remain free.

Visit our Guild Renaissance Group booth, enjoy our archival display, our beautiful fundraising prints of summer and winter views of the Guild Inn, and chat with our volunteers. We look forward to seeing you and your family and friends at this exciting event!

If you can volunteer at the GRG booth, or with the event itself, please contact us.

Dorsey James now a Patron of the Guild Renaissance Group!

We welcome Dorsey James as a Patron of the Guild Renaissance Group. Dorsey was one of the sculptors at the Guild of All Arts, working in the sculptor's cabin, which he also enhanced with carvings from Norse mythology. Dorsey is acclaimed world-wide for his intuitive lyrical creations in wood.

The GRG really needs your support at this critical time. Encourage your friends, neighbours and relatives to join the Guild Renaissance Group and help rebuild The Guild of All Arts!

Live Theatre returns for the third season at the Guild!

Saturday, July 18th to Sunday, August 11th, 2013

Sten Eirik and the Guild Festival Theatre proudly present their third season of professional theatre in the Guild, with Moliere's classic comedy, "The Misanthrope".

Presented on the open-air stage at the Greek Theatre, the setting brings the presentation to life. Evening performances become truly magical as the sun sets. The acting, stage set, and musical accompaniment combine to create a memorable experience for the audience. As darkness increases, the stage lighting enhances the beauty of the Greek Theatre, as the forest recedes into shadows and the stars twinkle overhead.

Chairs are provided, and tickets are available at the door. After the performance, volunteers with flashlights assist guests to return safely to their cars.

The GRG has been supportive of this group since its inception. We urge everyone to attend and enjoy this wonderful art event. Details are available at www.guildfestivaltheatre.ca
